What information is collected about me?

The trust uses a paper and electronic 'become a member of the trust' form. When you complete the electronic 'become a member of the trust' form information is gathered in two ways: indirectly (for example through the sites technology); and directly (for example the information you provide. Examples of information we collect indirectly are your IP address from which you access the website, and the date and time of when you access the site.

The information that we collect directly from yourself includes a combination of personal and special category information:

- basic details; your name, address, telephone numbers, date of birth and email
- gender
- sexual orientation
- ethnicity
- information relating to a disability and/or a long term condition

Why is information collected about me?

- to sign you up as a member of WCT
- to send you information about general membership matters
- to ensure that trust membership fully represents the people we serve

What is the legal basis for processing my information?

The legal basis for the processing of your information for the purposes listed above is your consent. We only collect information that you want to provide to us. Any consent you provide may be withdrawn at any time, for more information on this please see 'How long do you keep my information for?'

How do we keep your information confidential and safe?

Membership data within WCT is secured on a membership data base which is hosted by Membership Engagement Services Limited (MES). MES is a wholly owned subsidiary of Electoral Reform Services Limited (ERS).

Who will my information be shared with?

We share your information with MES so that they can host the membership database. It is not given to any other third party unless we are legally required to do so.

Your demographic information (name and address) will also be shared with an approved supplier, in order to send any information you have chosen to receive, via the postal service, or for the purpose of enabling members to participate in Governor Elections, which are required to be run by an independent company.

Your information is never collected or sold for direct marketing purposes. Your information is not processed overseas.

How long do you keep my information for?

Your membership information will only be held for as long as you are a member of the Trust. You may request that your information is removed, which would mean you would no longer be a member. For more information, please contact us:

Email: foryouwithyou@nhs.net

Phone Number: 0151 514 2888
